Competences

- Real Estate & Construction
- Dispute Resolution / Litigation & Arbitration
- Compliance / White Collar Crime

Nikolaus Pitkowitz is founding partner and head of the firm's dispute resolution and real estate practice groups. He has been practicing law since 1985; his practice, which has always been very international with a strong focus on CEE, was initially mainly comprised of transactional work in the fields of real estate and M&A and quickly expanded to international dispute resolution.

Nikolaus is considered one of the foremost Austrian dispute resolution practitioners. He acted as counsel and arbitrator in a multitude of international arbitrations, including several high profile disputes, most notably as counsel in the largest ever pending Austrian arbitration (a multibillion telecom dispute).

Nikolaus is also active as counsel in significant real estate projects and currently serves as chair of the IBA Real Estate Section, the world's largest association of real estate practitioners.

Nikolaus speaks German and English.
